Once Upon a Time (Ep. 2):
Imagine how things would be different today if high-quality childcare and pre-K was affordable and available to every family who wanted it. It almost happened.

Are We Crazy About Our Kids (Ep. 3)
Economists are clear: investing in high-quality early care and education is good for our kids and communities, and even pays for itself many times over. So, why aren't we investing?

Two chances to see Episodes 4& 5:
